VISIT AN AGRICULTURAL COOPERATIVE AND DISCOVER THE BRETON COAST

Study Tour 01 (ST01)

COOPERL

Cooperl

Managing Director: Emmanuel Commault

Cooperl is a leading French cooperative in the pork sector with a strong dynamic of innovation in animal welfare and the environment.

We will start our tour with a presentation of the activities of the environmental branch of Cooperl (water treatment, waste recycling, renewable energies, ...) in an immersive space located in the heart of the industrial site in Lamballe.

We will pursue the tour by discovering the Breton coast through the visit of the charming town of Pléneuf-Val-André and its port which was built in the 19th century to receive large fishing vessels.

This visit will allow you to discover two pillars of the Breton economy: the food industry and tourism
